

Prosperity's Ten Commandments

Georgiana Tree West

The commandments were/are fences to keep the undeveloped ones from wandering. Children need fences and teenagers may need curfews and times of grounding. But there must come a time when they put away childish things and move on to self-reliance and maturity.

Eric Butterworth

You shall have no other gods before me.

Exod. 20.3

You shall look to no other source but
God for your supply.

Georgiana Tree West

Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust consume and where thieves break in and steal; but store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust consumes and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Mt. 6.19-21

Every desirable and beneficial gift comes out of heaven. The gifts are rivers of light cascading down from the Father of Light, with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change.

James 1.17

God has provided for the most minute needs of our daily life and if we lack anything it is because we have not used our mind in making the right contact with Divine Mind and the cosmic ray that automatically flows from it.

Charles Fillmore

It is by faith that we understand that the universe was created by God's word, so that what can be seen was made out of what cannot be seen.

Heb. 11.3

All material avenues of supply are merely the pay clerks of God. They may come and go but there's always more to take their place.
