

Prosperity's Ten Commandments

Georgiana Tree West

-1-

You shall look to no other source but God for your supply.

-2-

You shall make no mental images of lack.

-3-

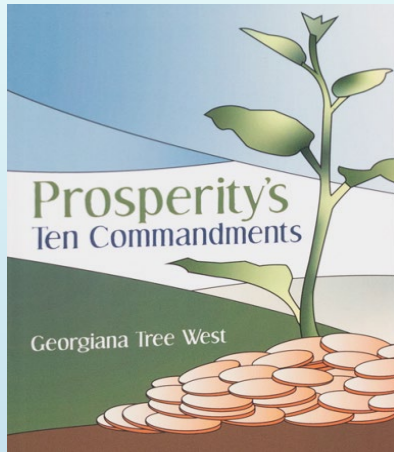

You shall not speak the word of lack or limitation.

Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh is a Sabbath to the Lord your God. You shall not do any work. Exod. 20.8

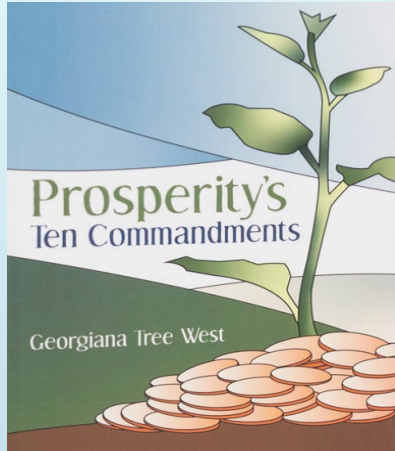

Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. Mark 2.27

The Sabbath Day is any time, when you remember the allness of God that is present right where you are as the fullness of all that you are and all that you need or desire. Eric Butterworth

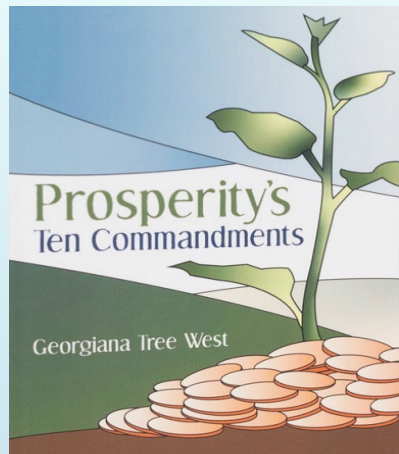

4th Prosperity Commandment

You shall let go and let God do it.

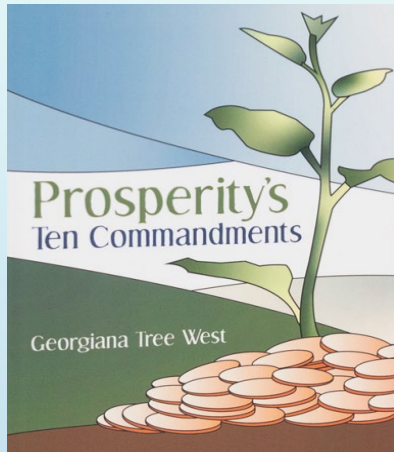

When you have put your mind, heart and hands to a project, then let go and let God breathe life into it that it may become a living form.

Eric Butterworth

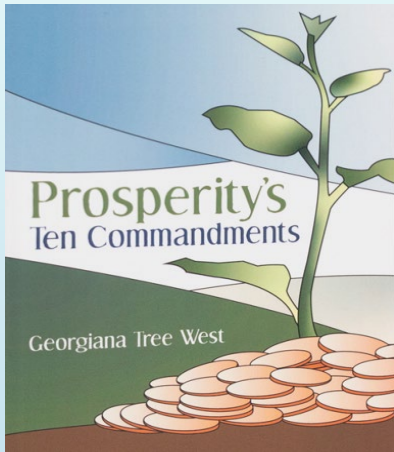

In every demonstration, there must be resting periods, times of cessation from outer activity, while one dwells in complete reliance on God and on the operation of spiritual laws.

4th Prosperity Commandment

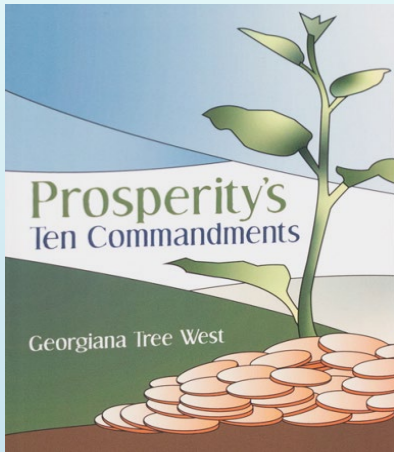

You shall let go and let God do it.

Honor your father and mother so your days shall be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

Ex. 20.12

5th Prosperity Commandment

You shall deal honorably with God and with all human instruments through whom God's good is manifested for you.

Give and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.

If planting 9/10 & tithing 1/10 of harvest continues for another 6 years, at end of 12 years not enough land mass on planet earth to plant it.

Malachi 3:10

“Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, and prove me now herewith, says the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.”

Disciples of Pharisees came to Jesus and said "So tell us honestly: Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" Jesus knew they were up to no good. He said, "Why are you playing these games with me? Why are you trying to trap me? Do you have a coin? Let me see it." They handed him a silver piece. "This engraving - who does it look like? And whose name is on it?" They said, "Caesar." "Then give Caesar what is his, and give God what is his."

Matt. 22.17-21

You should each give, then, as you have decided, not with regret or out of a sense of duty; for God loves the one who gives gladly. And God is able to give you more than you need, so that you will always have all you need for yourselves and more than enough for every good cause. This most generous God who gives seed to the farmer that becomes bread for your meals is more than extravagant with you. He gives you something you can then give away, which grows into full-formed lives, robust in God, wealthy in every way, so that you can be generous in every way, producing with us great praise to God.

2 Cor. 9.7-13

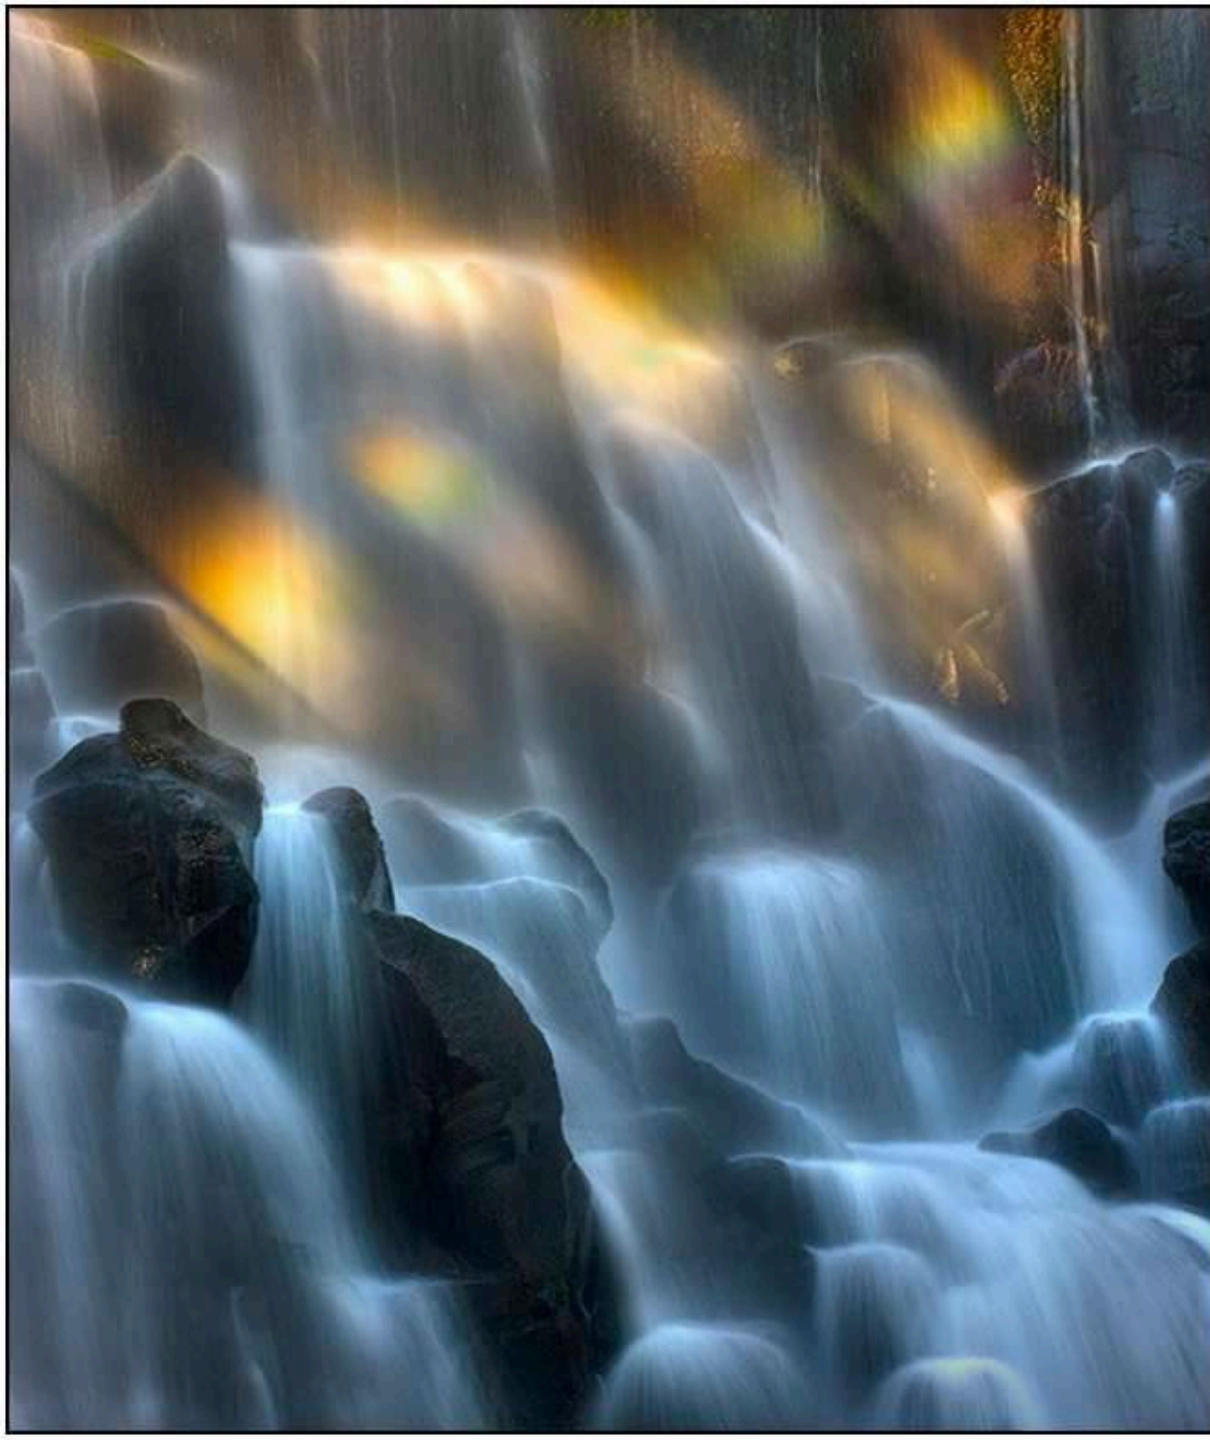

Commandments

of Prosperity

#4- You shall let go and let God do it.

#5- You shall deal honorably with God and with all human instruments through whom God's good is manifested for you.

As I make way for God, God makes way for my infinite good.
