

Prosperity's Ten Commandments

Georgiana Tree West

-6-

You shall not kill.

Exod. 20.13

You shall not take your wealth out of circulation.

The law of circulation is a Cosmic Law. That means that it is true everywhere and on all planes. The law says that constant rhythmical movement is necessary to health and harmony. Now the opposite of circulation is congestion, and it may be said that all sickness, disharmony, or trouble of any kind is really due to some form of congestion.

Emmet Fox

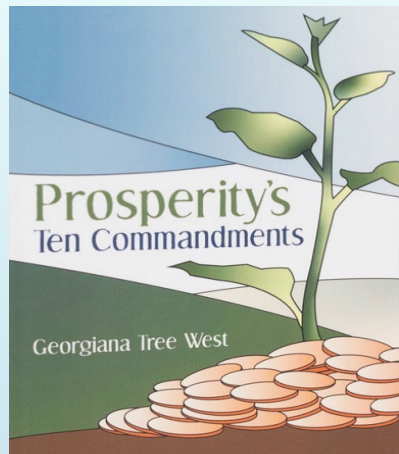

For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away.

Mt. 6.19-21

When he came near Jerusalem, at the place where the road went down the Mount of Olives, the large crowd of his disciples began to thank God and praise him in loud voices for all the great things that they had seen. Then some of the Pharisees in the crowd spoke to Jesus. "Teacher," they said, "command your disciples to be quiet!" Jesus answered, "I tell you that if they keep quiet, the stones themselves will start shouting."

Luke 19.37

-7-

You shall not commit adultery.

Exod. 20.14

You shall not abase your wealth to idle or evil uses.

-7 Prosperity Commandment - You shall not abase your wealth to idle or evil uses.

Abase – Lower in rank / esteem

Adulterate – To corrupt or make impure by addition of foreign or inferior substance.

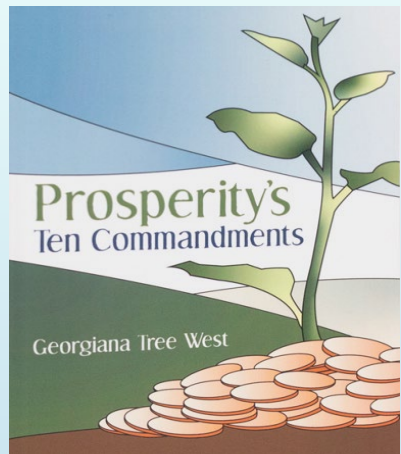

Under the law of cause and effect, all unworthy use of spiritual power brings dire results.

Remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth.

Deut. 8.18

And God is able to give me more than I need, so that I will always have all I need for myself and more than enough for every good cause.

2 Cor. 9.8

I demonstrate my divine potential as I circulate the goodness of God.
