and the Prism of Perception

The Progress Pride Flag (created by nonbinary graphic artist Daniel Quasar in 2018): The arrow-shaped lines place a greater emphasis on diversity and inclusion. The black and brown stripes represent marginalized LGBTQIA+ people of color, while the colors pink, light blue, and white are used on the transgender pride flag.

We advocate for the equal treatment of people of all gender-expressions, sexual orientations, and any member of the LGBTQIA+ Community.

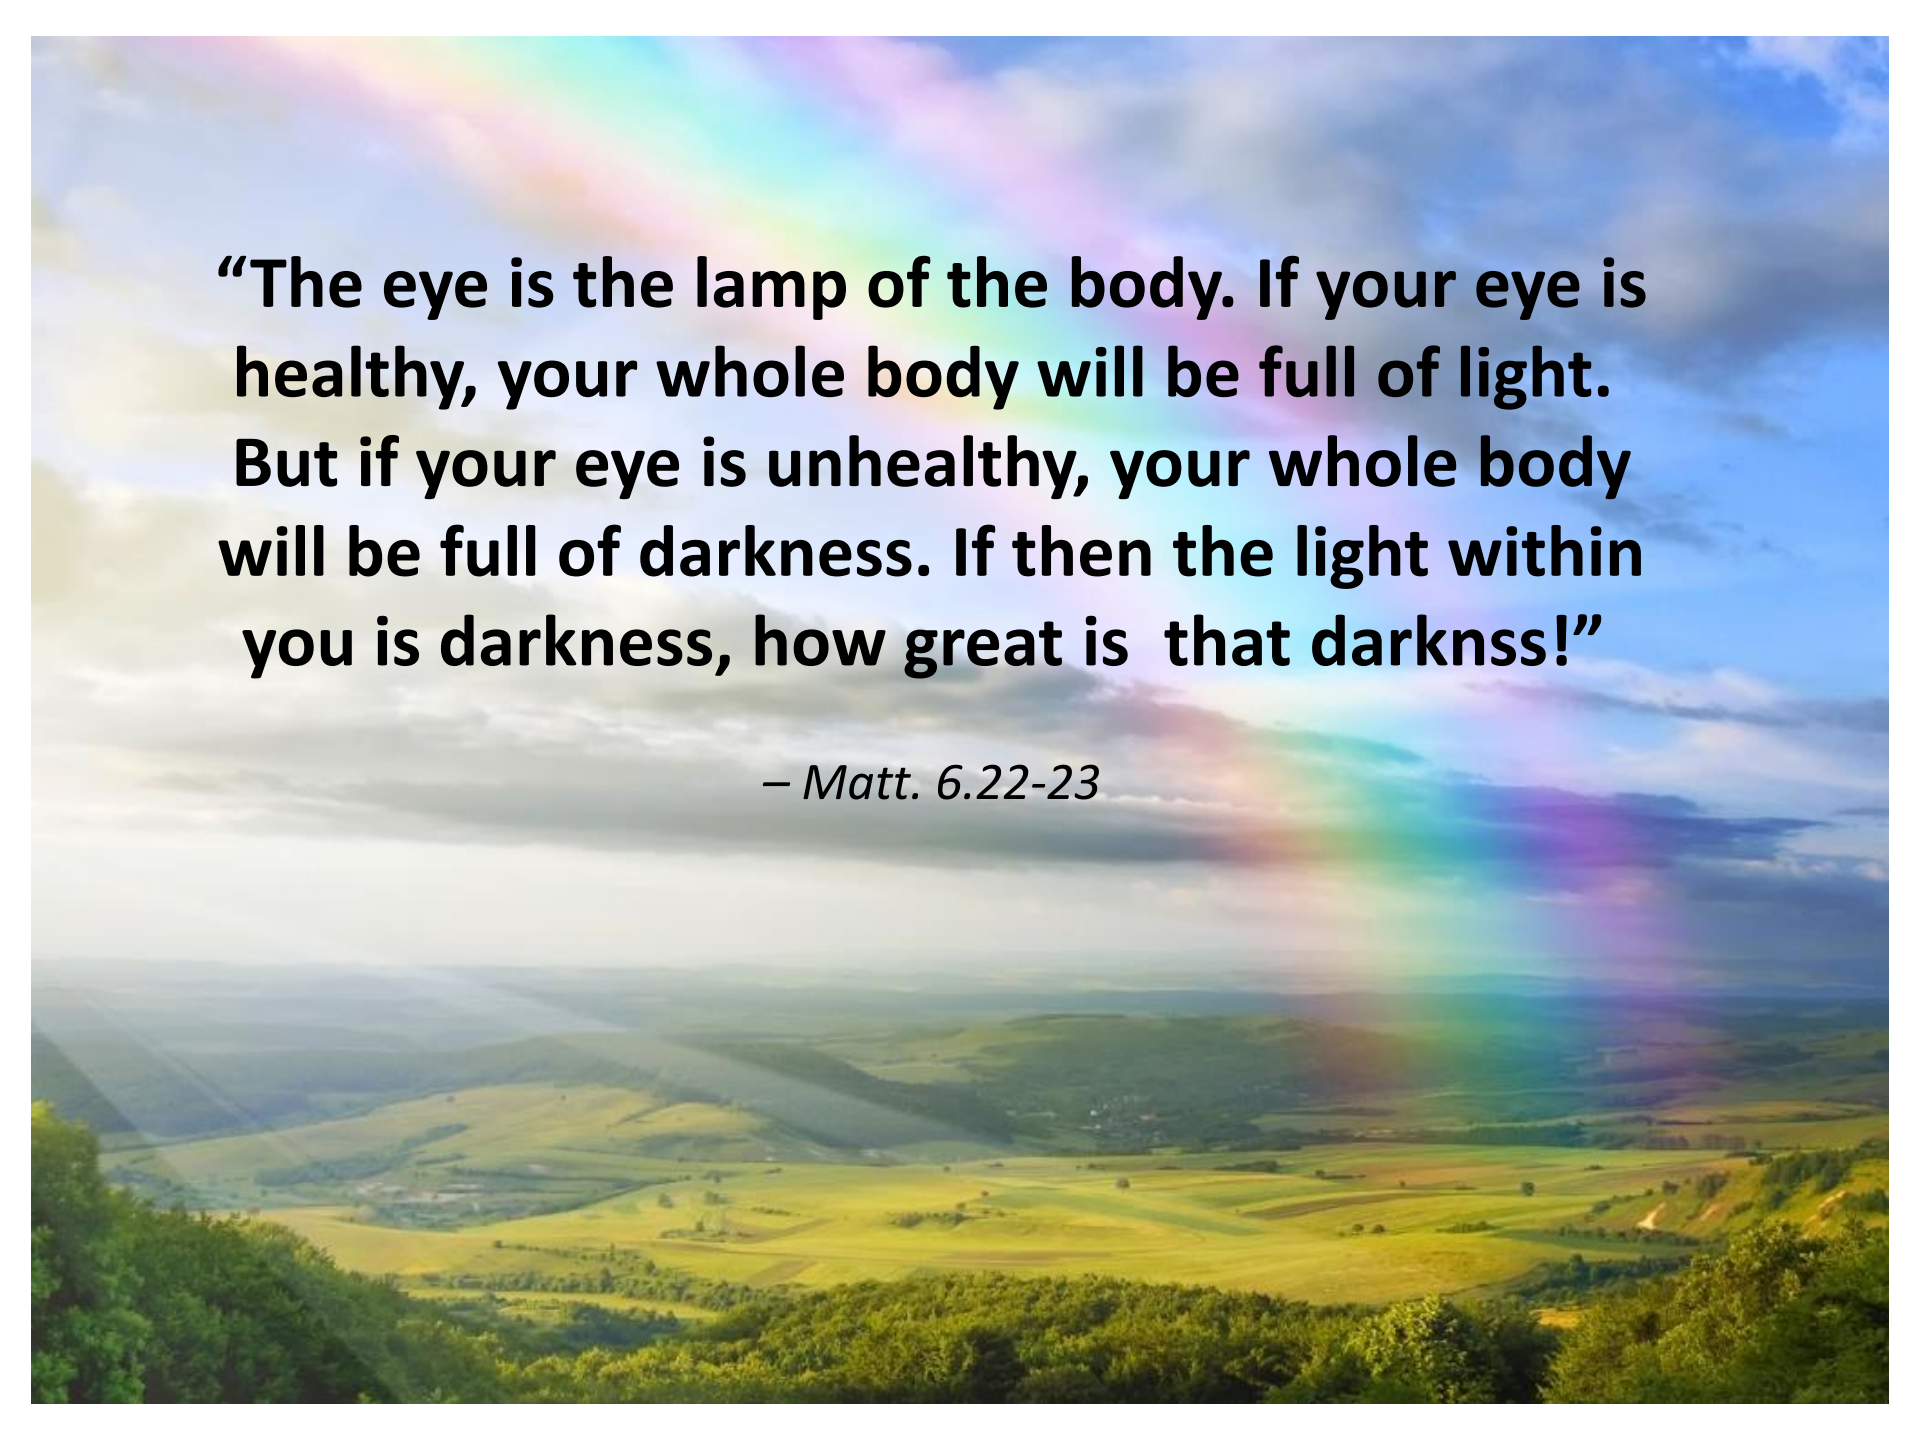

We work to support our community to ensure people feel safe, supported, and have access to resources they need to grow and develop.

Everyone deserves to feel valued and included!
Discrimination, stereotyping and bias can lead to exclusion and marginalization of minorities. It's the 21st-century, there should be equality for everyone!

The foreground is filled with dense green trees, and the hills in the distance are covered in green fields and patches of trees. The overall scene is bright and vibrant, with a mix of natural colors from the landscape and the sky.

“The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eye is unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!”

– Matt. 6.22-23

“If the doors of perception were cleansed everything would appear to man as it is...
Infinite.”

– William Blake

How Unity Supports Open-Mindedness:

I listen and consider the possibilities from different perspectives. I respect the opinions of others.

Wholeness

In conscious communion with God,
we remember we are spiritual beings who are perfect,
whole and complete.

Wholeness instills a sense of oneness and inspires us to express from our divine potential.

Wholeness

Affirm

I participate in consciousness-expanding activities such as inward exploration, study and discussion.

I view everything as a growth opportunity and I live the Truth that I know.
