OFFENSE: Annoyance or resentment brought about by a perceived insult to or disregard for oneself or one's standards or principles.

Oxford Languages Dictionary

DAILYWORD

Forgiving

Forces beyond your control can take away everything you possess except one thing, your freedom to choose how you will respond to the situation.

Viktor Frankl

UNFORGIVENESS:
Drinking the poison and waiting for the other person to die.

DAILYWORD

Forgiving

“Love your enemies.”

Matt. 5.44

Love them for being a reflection of what's out of alignment in you. If you are threatened, then you are not connected to Spirit. What inner resource are you lacking, that if possessed instead of insecurity, would enable you to relate to the person as not being a threat? The person is not against you as far as being an obstacle to your good ... because God is your source. The person is mirroring what part of you is not connected to your wholeness. Value the relationship. It's giving you the chance to grow into your wholeness.

Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me?
Up to seven times?” Jesus answered,
“I tell you, not seven times,
but seventy-seven times.”

Matt. 18.21-22

Jesus said...

“Resist not the evil one.”

“Let it be done to you as you believe.”

“Father, forgive them
for they know not what they do.”
