

Will & Strength

From Darkness to LIGHT

For I do not do the good I want to do, but the bad I do not want to do – this I keep on doing.

Rom. 7.19

You always choose in the direction of what you believe benefits you more than the alternative. You always move away from what you believe does not benefit you.

Our Spiritual Will

I am willing to consider a higher choice.

I am willing to live the best that I know.

I choose to think, act and respond to life in alignment with spiritual truth.

I will meditate daily.

I will listen more, speak less.

I will look for the good.

I will let peace begin with me.

Agree with God and be at peace;
in this way good will come to you.

Job 22.21

You come at me with sword and spear,
but I come at you in the name of God.

1 Sam. 17.45

Our Spiritual Strength

To endure, stay the course, persevere...
holding onto divine ideas, truths, spiritual principles and laws...to be obedient to the best that we know...believing that “I am an expression of the Christ.”

Will & Strength Together...

If WILL decides on the best that we know,
STRENGTH holds us to it.

Will & Strength

Together...

STRENGTH accomplishes...

What WILL has chosen.

Will & Strength

Together...

WILL chooses the right thing and...

STRENGTH gives us the courage
to see it through.

Will & Strength

Together...

STRENGTH empowers us to walk our talk
and feel the fear...

while WILL chooses to “do it anyway.”

Will & Strength

Together...

When WILL decides “not to fight”...

STRENGTH “holds our tongue.”

In repentance and rest is your salvation,
in quietness and trust is your strength.

Is. 30.15

Those who wait upon God get fresh strength. They spread their wings and soar like eagles. They run and don't get tired, they walk and don't lag behind.

Is. 40.31

In my defenselessness lies my salvation.
