- Ernest Holmes – Creative Mind

I'm not sure you ever have too much to do to take some time to open up to the other dimensions within you. When you're refreshed, you're present and alive and light whizzes through your tasks. You may not even get everything done you originally intended, but that's because your intentions came from tiny mind and now big mind is on the scene.

If two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven.
Where two or three gather in my name,
I am in the midst.

and do not rely on your own insight.
In all your ways acknowledge him,
and he will make your paths straight.
