A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up.

Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root.

Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants.

Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.

Faith is the power to do the seemingly impossible. It is a force that draws to us our heart's desire right out of the invisible substance. It's a deep inner knowing that that which is sought is already ours for the taking.

Charles Fillmore – Keep a True Lent

God's will is that each species of creation shall fulfill itself, according to its own divine image or pattern.
